TWO IDEAL PARK CHOICES.

Wednesday night's heavy fall of rain helped the track at Ideal Park a good deal. It was a bit slow yesterday, but was much better than a course of dust. The card was rather light and the sport none too interesting.

It was an excellent day for the ring, only two choices scoring and they at such a late hour and short prices that the talent had very little chance of getting out.

B. J. Johnson's gray Order—Lucy Lisle colt won his second race at the meeting and did it in such style as to convince many that he has class. He was at a long price and unplayed by his stable. Griggs is worth watching.

The scratching of Ida Pickwick, Derfargilla and Judge Baker took interest out of the handicap, and Carter's greatly improved colt, The Deuce, won as he pleased.

G. W. Poole turned up a fair youngster in Admetus, who won the maiden race with something to spare. The colt has shown nothing in his work and was a surprise to everyone.

Merry Monarch picked up his 110 pounds and galloped over Semper Lex and Umbrella.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Typhoon has gone east to fill some fall stake engagements. He is a good colt.

Leopold de Rothschild's noble colt St. Frusquin by St. Simon—Isabel, has broken down.

Harry Kuhl is in town looking after some routine business for the Chicago Racing Association.

After a good soaking and succeeding sun the Ideal Park track is good for a mile in 1:42 or so within ten days.

That fast gelding Cuticlene was killed at Lexington last Tuesday. While at work he ran into a gate and broke his neck.

A Mr. Wilson of California is said to have been chosen as Capt. Rees' associate at Ingleside next winter.

The boy Thompson, riding as well at Newport as the average of the hurry-up division, is Jim Cushing's Two Bits of the past.

Ed Tipton, who made such a success of the Anaconda and Butte meetings this season, was in Chicago Sunday on his way home to Lexington.

Oakley's opening fall date as announced was September 17th. Newport's closing date as announced was September 15th. Oakley now elects to open September 12th and Newport will probably avoid a clash and close September 11.

WESTERN COLTS ARE BEST.

The East is learning to respect Western two-year-olds. Next to Ornament Jim Murphy's George Rose is perhaps the best youngster in the East and Mr. Cahn's Typhoon learned the Eastern fancy another lesson Wednesday when he won the Golden Rod Stakes so easily. There are still a few good ones left in the west, notably Barney Schreiber's good Belvidere—Legacy colt, Aquinas.

Half Yearly and Quarterly Form.

The second Quarterly and first Half Yearly editions of Leather Form are ready for delivery. Books are already on their way to early pre-paid subscribers. The publications far surpass anything in turf literature even before issued. The Quarterly of 375 pages at $5 contains 1,800 charts, covering all good racing in America from June 1st, to August 22d, with an index of 61 pages, or 450 pages in all. The Half Yearly at $10, contains 3,200 charts from March 26th to August 22d, with the same comprehensive index, or 850 pages in all. Both books are built for hard use and are bound in flexible leather. There are only forty-five Quarterly and fifteen Half Yearly volumes left. All the rest were reserved.
